

1 QUALITY POLICY

It is the established policy of the company to provide its customers with products and services, which comply with the agreed requirements. This includes customer quality, delivery, contract specifications and requirements as well as a commitment to continuous improvement.

The objective of Icom - Scottech is to operate, maintain and manage a Quality Assurance System to meet the requirements of BS EN ISO9001:2008. The Quality System includes quality management objectives, policies, organisation and procedures associated with all procurement and manufacturing activities.

The Quality System is the responsibility of all employees within the company.

Customers and suppliers of Icom - Scottech are assured of the company's total commitment to develop, co-ordinate and monitor the effectiveness of the Quality System. Future growth development and success of the company is based complete commitment to the quality principles as integral elements for future growth, development and success of the company.

6

MANAGING DIRECTOR

DATE